LABOR TROUBLE PLAGUES 3 BIG CITIES IN OHIO

Transit Strike Hits Akron; Columbus and Cincinnati Are Threatened.

By The Associated Press
Akron's transit strike, and threats of an electric power strike Saturday in the Cincinnati area and a walkout next Monday by employees in Columbus dominated today's Ohio strike developments. CIO transport workers in Akron late yesterday turned down a request for arbitration, made by Gov. Frank J. Lausche. They also withdrew a compromise wage offer made before they left their jobs on buses and trackless trolleys of the Akron Transportation Co. yesterday.

Ohio's coal fields, employing 30,000 in the southeastern part of the state, remained idle as the United Mine Workers (AFL) refused to mine without a contract. Labor development around the state.

AKRON Still Tied Up
The Rubber City's transit strike went into its second day today with CIO transport workers reverting to their original wage demands. The union also decided to withdraw an offer to accept a wage increase of 15 cents an hour, and return to its original demands for a boost of 32 cents, a 42-hour basic work week and a pension plan. The rate under a contract which expired Sunday night was 98 cents. The company had offered a six-cent increase.

Cincinnati Threatened
By 9 a. m. Thursday, says a federal conciliator, the Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co. will have a new offer toward settlement of a dispute with 1,300 members of the AFL Electrical Workers union, who threatened to strike Saturday.

Columbus Sits Tight
Served with a notice that AFL unionists in the city water, light and sewage district divisions would strike next Monday, city council plans no special meetings to consider the workers' demands for wage increases of 15 to 25 per cent.

Carpenters Cool Off
CLEVELAND — Members of the AFL Carpenters District Council, numbering 4,500 in Cuyahoga, Geauga and Lake counties, will continue to work during the 30-day "cooling off" period which followed their filing yesterday of a notice of intent to strike.

To Drop Fight
CANTON — Frank T. Voy, attorney for a back-to-work group of union members at the Union Metal Mfg. Co., has agreed "not to press" for a hearing on a petition to drop the fight.

Stassen Scores New GOP Head

Adds Sour Note as Party Acclaims Choice of Tennessee's Reece.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 2—Harold E. Stassen sounded a discordant note today in Republican praises for the G.O.P. national committee's choice of Rep. Carroll Reece of Tennessee as the party's new chairman.

Stassen, who is almost avowedly in the race for the 1948 presidential nomination, declared it is "well known that I do not approve of Chairman Reece's stand on many issues in the past."

The former Minnesota governor's statement left little doubt about his disappointment over the committee's action in naming Reece, a close political associate of Senator Robert Taft and former Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio, over two other candidates.

Reece succeeds Herbert E. Brownell Jr., who resigned to devote full time to his New York law practice.

Wins On Third Try
With the almost solid backing of southern state Republicans, plus some such veterans of G.O.P. political battles as Werner Schroeder of Illinois, Reece won on the third ballot in a torrid committee session.

The 56-year-old Tennesseean, a veteran of nearly 25 years of congressional service, told delegates at a victory dinner last night he realizes the national chairman "cannot make the Republican party or determine its destinies."

Stassen said significantly he was prepared to cooperate with Reece in this year's congressional elections. He did not go further than that.

Dewey Choice Loses
Reece's forces, headed by Walter Hallahan, West Virginia committee chairman, defeated former Senator John A. Danaher of Connecticut, generally regarded as the choice of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

Danaher and John W. Hanes, a North Carolina Democrat-turned-Republican, at one point on the second ballot polled between them a total of 53 votes, enough for election had it been amassed by one individual.

Hanes' candidacy was advanced by Sinclair Weeks of Massachusetts, former national committee treasurer and an ardent supporter of the late Wendell L. Willkie.

Danaher mustered 31 as his top strength, but Reece had 46 on the first ballot, held that on the second and climbed to 58 on the third. This was five more than the necessary majority. The committee promptly made it unanimous.

Losers Approves
The choice of Reece promptly was approved publicly by Danaher, whose $20,000 a year job as liaison man between the national committee and minority members of congress may continue. Hanes wasn't present to state his views.

Members returned Hallahan, who had been shunted aside at Dewey's request in 1944, to the executive committee. And as chairman of that group they elected Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio, a half-way candidate for the chairmanship who nominated Reece.

The Tennesseean, credited by friends as an adroit politician, expects to serve as a full-time chairman without pay. He said he will resign his congress seat to take over immediately. That will leave this lineup in the house: 238 Democrats, 180 Republicans, two minor party members and four vacancies.

MRS. BRADBURY TO LEAVE HERE

Hospital Superintendent To Take Similar Position in Bellefontaine.

Mrs. Margaret Bradbury, superintendent of the Marion City hospital for nearly two and one-half years, will become superintendent of Mary Ruth hospital in Bellefontaine June 1, it was announced by T. E. O'Connor, chairman of the Mary Ruth hospital in Bellefontaine hospital, in an Associated Press dispatch today.

She will succeed Miss Agnes Armitage, who resigned.

Mrs. Bradbury notified Safety-Service Director E. O. Uncapher several weeks ago that she would be leaving her position in June but to date has not tendered a formal resignation, Mr. Uncapher stated today.

No effort has been made to procure a successor, pending Mrs. Bradbury's formal resignation, Mr. Uncapher stated.

Mrs. Bradbury took over the superintendency of the City hospital in November 1943, succeeding Mrs. Mary Taylor. A former resident of Gallipolis, she was graduated from the Bethesda School of Nursing at Zanesville, and was engaged in industrial nursing in Youngstown, later serving as superintendent of the Citizens' hospital at Barboursburg.

TAFT QUILTS HEALTH PROBE AFTER FRACAS

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 2—Senator Taft (R-O) stalked angrily from a senate committee hearing today after Committee Chairman Murray (D-Mont) threatened to have him ejected.

The row broke out and quickly reached the shouting stage as the senate labor committee began consideration of legislation to set up a national compulsory health insurance plan.

Taft broke in a statement by Murray to assert that the bill was "the most socialistic one congress ever had before it."

In the exchange, Murray told Taft: "I want you to subside, to shut up or I'll have the officers called and put you out of this committee room."

Murray opened the hearing by commending the Washington Post for an editorial in which he said attention was called to some claims that such health bills were "socialistic."

"I'll tell you this measure is the most socialistic one congress ever had before it," Taft interrupted. Taft then insisted on making a statement. He managed to shout, above the loud protests of Murray, that he himself would introduce a health bill.

Murray, standing almost shoulder to shoulder with Taft, snapped that he didn't intend to be "buffeted" by "grandstand plays."

"You have so much gall," cried Murray, "that you would not let me, the chairman of this committee, conclude my statement."

Then, he made his threat to have Taft put out of the committee room.

"Mr. Chairman," Taft retorted, "you're sitting in my very hospital. You've shown your lack of

Byrnes Given New Support by Truman in UNO Battle

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 2—Secretary of State Byrnes turned back toward United Nations headquarters today from a White House conference believed to have given him renewed assurance of President Truman's vigorous support in grappling tomorrow with developments in the Iranian crisis.

Expectation among top diplomats here is that these developments, even though they may include a message from Russia replying to security council inquiries about Iran, probably will not break the crisis but merely advance it to a new stage.

This is based on the belief, privately expressed by these authorities, that Iran's demands upon the council very likely will not be substantially changed by Premier Ahmed Qavam in his reply to the same inquiries. Qavam yesterday sent Secretary General Trygve Lie a note reaffirming the position of Ambassador Hussein Ala as his fully authorized spokesman here.

The Anglo-American policy in preparation for tomorrow's council session, presumably confirmed by Byrnes' talk with Mr. Truman yesterday, is reliably reported to be this:

If both Russia and Iran say that Soviet troops are being withdrawn from Iran and are not being used to influence the Iranian government in considering Russian demands for oil concessions and the like, the council should accept the answers as satisfactory and shelve the case temporarily. Moscow and Tehran would then continue with direct negotiations, being asked only to report to the security council at some future stage.

If the Russian answer is equivocal, however, or if the Iranian government does not give the situation a clean bill of health, next Monday.

Registrations now total 1,267, with 46 reported yesterday, along with 19 transfers. The election board office is now open through the noon hour and will remain open until 9 p. m. on Friday, Saturday and Monday nights.

Election board officials estimate there are still 1,600 persons who could vote in the May primary if they register before the deadline.

Expect Vote List To Reach 16,400
Election board officials expected registrations to go over 16,400 today as additional persons hurried to get their registrations in before the deadline.

Reopening of Draft Hearings Wins Okay
By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 2—The house military committee voted today to reopen hearings on legislation designed to extend the draft law.

Two additional days of hearings starting tomorrow were not added for opposition witnesses. Chairman May (D-Ky.) said the American Federation of Labor probably would lead off.

After voting to reopen the hearings over the objections of some members who had sought a show-down vote today, the committee decided to start closed sessions Friday in an effort to reach final decisions.

If you fall into one of these classifications you must register with the board of election by April 8 to be eligible to vote in the May 7 primaries.

1. If you will be 21 years old before the general election.
2. If you have failed to vote in any election within the last two years.
3. If you have moved from one house and street to another since the last election.
4. If you have moved from one precinct to another since the last election.

RETAILERS ASK CODE FOR OPA

Want Liberal Policy Put in "Black and White" To Ease Merchants.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 2 — A spokesman for the nation's merchants asked congress today to legislate "in black and white" OPA's liberalized policy of raising prices to stimulate production.

"Retail merchants say that the index of wholesale prices will probably have to rise certainly by 15 per cent, perhaps by 18½ per cent, if the blockade (against greater production) is in effect," said David R. Craig, research director of the American Retailers Federation.

"This is a stiff increase, but it is not too high a price to pay for the liberation," Craig asserted in an address prepared for the federation's annual meeting.

"It is not as high as the increase we would be sure to get if we were to drive the OPA off the cliff, and it is not so high as the increase we are destined to get if we keep on restricting production."

Craig said the Retailers Federation is "much impressed" by recent price ceiling increases intended to break bottlenecks in the output of scarce goods. But he added that the merchants want assurance that these price boosts do not merely reflect a "shotgun conversion" of OPA caused by the approaching congressional vote on a one-year extension of that agency's life.

"We ask the congress to put it in black and white and to assure the country that the new policy will be continued," Craig went on.

"Most retailers want the OPA to maintain control of prices until it is safer to drop them than it is now. But they want congress to amend the organic law under which OPA operates."

The amendments retailers want are the ones which will remove obstacles to production wherever

HILO, HAWAII, April 2—Hilo's seismic wave death toll might have been in thousands had it struck two or three hours later than it did.

The swells engulfed Hilo's waterfront business district while the city slowly was waking to life yesterday. A little later, employees and shoppers would have thronged warehouses and stores in the ravaged area.

The warning given by the two smaller of Hilo's three waves saved hundreds, who had time to flee from the waterfront.

This is how the waves struck. The first inundated 30 feet along the waterfront—much of it park and warehouse areas. Cries of warning mingled and people fled into the streets in a mad rush for higher ground.

A few warehouses remained to stand alone, which were heavily damaged by the water.

KETCHIKAN, ALASKA, April 2—Coast Guard district headquarters today attempted to chart the course of a tidal wave which, it said, was sweeping toward southeastern Alaska. It hoped to warn residents in its projected path.

It said an airplane yesterday spotted a wave 40 feet high and traveling about 35 miles an hour toward southeastern Alaska.

By The Associated Press

HILO, HAWAII, April 2—The death toll in the eastern Pacific's worst seismic wave disaster reached 93 today and a naval officer estimated the loss of life in Hilo—chief victim of the boiling seas—might total 300.

Damage ran into the millions of dollars.

A submarine earthquake which geologists called "world-shaking" sent giant swells fanning out from the North Pacific at 400 to 500 miles an hour early yesterday. Beaches on Hawaii, the Aleutians and California were lashed by 10 to 100-foot waves.

The death toll.

Hawaiian Islands—60 bodies recovered at Hilo; nine on Oahu, seven on Maui and six on Kauai Islands.

Unimak, the Aleutians—Ten men swept to sea from the Scotch Gap lighthouse.

California—One man swept to sea from the Santa Cruz beach.

Many were missing in Hilo and in rural Laupahoehoe, but the number was not known.

Thousands Homeless

At Honolulu, William W. Monahan, chairman of the Hawaii Red Cross, estimated that not more than 4,000 refugees asked for shelter in all of the Hawaiian Islands. Of these, 1,800 were on Oahu and 600 on Hawaii Islands.

Territorial Gov. Ingram Stainback invoked the Hawaiian Deities act "for the safeguarding of life and property and the preservation of law and order" in waves-ravaged areas.

Casualty reports appeared to be complete from all damaged areas except the island of Hawaii, on which Hilo with its 25,000 population is located.

There was some hope that Hilo's death toll might not reach the naval officer's 300 estimate. A score of persons previously reported missing had been saved from the waters off Hawaii by Army and Navy air-sea rescue planes and small surface craft. One, a 21-year-old school teacher, Miss Maxine McGinnis of Oxford, O., was rescued after eight hours in the water.

There was hope also that the waves might not recur today, as feared for a time last night.

Damage Is Appalling
Hawaiians "dared not estimate the damage, except in the millions of dollars," Herbert C. Shipman, Hilo sugar planter, said $700,000 worth of raw sugar was swept into the ocean with destruction of territorial wharves.

Tens of thousands of dollars worth of food in warehouses was destroyed. It was estimated that Hilo had only four days of food available.

U. S. Not Will Hard
Coast Guard stations reported no extensive damage and no loss of life in the Pacific northwest states, but one man was swept to sea and lost from the beach at Santa Cruz, Calif.

The Navy had no immediate reports of damage in the Marshall Islands.

Tokyo reported no disturbance of any sort.

At East Island, on French Frigate shoal, 450 miles northwest of Honolulu, the giant seas swept clear over the island, the Coast Guard said. There was no word of the island's little naval garrison.

In sheltered Honolulu, on the

Gov. Lausche and "Czar" Chandler Due Here April 30 for Start of Season.

By JIM DAREY

Baseball Commissioner A. B. "Happy" Chandler and Gov. Frank J. Lausche have a date with Marion. The two will attend the opening day game between the Marion Cardinals and the Lima Terriers April 30 as a reward to Marion for having won the opening day advance ticket sale from Dayton by a whisker.

Frank M. Colley, of Columbus, Ohio State league president, who will also attend the opening night game, announced today that Marion had won. Marion's total was 14,657 tickets sold. Dayton, Marion's only serious rival, followed with 13,280. Middletown and Newark also ran in the contest which closed yesterday.

Last Minute Drive Wins

Originally scheduled to end at noon the contest was extended to 4:30 p. m. A last minute drive put Marion over.

Judge W. Dexter Hazen and the Marion ball club officials have been pushing the sale since the contest was first announced last winter. At the request of the guests it was moved up from April 15 to April 1.

Colley reports that Marion lived up to its title of "the best class D town in baseball." Middletown and Newark lost by default, and even in Dayton nothing like Marion's interest was evidenced. The other four teams in the league—Lima, Richmond, Zanesville and Springfield—are scheduled away from home on opening day and hence were not in the contest.

In winning the ticket sale contest, Marion had to overcome a population handicap, Colley pointed out. It is the smallest city in the Ohio State league and is outnumbered by Dayton 10 to one. The total sales, 14,657, represent 47.8 per cent of the city's population.

Mexican Diamond Boss Says More Stars Will Sign Soon

By The Associated Press

MEXICO CITY, April 2.—Mexico League President Jorge Pasquel believes he has another little bombshell in the making for the major league.

Quite pleased over his acquisition of Mickey Owen, Stephens and three New York Giants' players in the past few days, the sapper basebalist declared yesterday that "two or three other" big leaguers soon will be playing in his circuit.

He declined to name them but said they should be here next week.

With his eight clubs already stocked with 17 former major leaguers, Pasquel indicated that he soon will bring an end to his raiding for the current season.

Pasquel, who with his four brothers, dominates the loop which has no ties with organized baseball, said, however, that he already is angling for the 1947 season.

The Mexico league press is full of its next season's eight foreign players but the recent additions and the more expected shortly it believed that the ceiling would be raised.

NAZI ADMITS ANTI-SEMITISM

Ribbentrop Says as Hitler's Envoy He Upbraided Mussolini for Leniency.

By The Associated Press. NUERNBERG, April 2.—Joseph von Ribbentrop angrily admitted before the international military tribunal today that he had upbraided Benito Mussolini because of Italian mercy to Jews in southern occupied France. Earlier he testified that his German foreign office always sought to soften Nazi anti-semitic measures in Europe. Confronted with captured German records which depicted him in the role of a special anti-semitic envoy to foreign governments, the former German foreign minister conceded that the documents were substantially correct. "I knew of the fuhrer's plan to resettle European Jews in east territories, or later in Madagascar or North Africa," von Ribbentrop said. "Because a large-scale espionage system was discovered among Jews in France who helped British and American intelligence, the fuhrer asked me to get Mussolini's assurance that the Jews would be stopped. The Italians had been working against certain measures taken against Jews by the French government under German influence. A lot of unpleasant matters had occurred." Hitler's complaint was delivered to Mussolini four months before the Duce was overthrown. The Italian chief of state, according to documents presented by Edgar Faure, French prosecutor, tried to soothe the Germans by attributing the whole thing to Vichy efforts to sow seeds of dissension in the Axis.

Gurley Avenue Storage Filled and Connected to Mains.

The Marion Water Company's new 300,000 gallon tank on Gurley avenue is now in full operation, according to L. Ott Porter, company manager. The tank was filled with fresh water yesterday and was connected to the water system after going through a series of tests during the last several days. Arrangements are now being made to let a contract for painting the 110 foot structure with aluminum paint, Mr. Porter said, and next week the electrical apparatus to show the water level in the tank will be installed. The apparatus will send electrical impulses from the tank to the pump room station, so engineers will know at all times the exact water level in the tank. Installation of the new water system means Marion now has approximately 150,000 gallons more water in case of fire or other emergencies, Mr. Porter declared.

Fear of Reprisal May Bar Use of A-Bomb If New War Comes

This year's Army Day, April 6, will be the first in the atomic age. Here is the first of five articles on atomic warfare and the armed forces' preparations for it.

By CLARKE BEACH
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON, April 2 —
There now has been disclosed by the men who share the dark secret of the atomic bomb for us the sure what World War III will be like—if folly permits it.

There is still some hope among policy makers in this country and Great Britain that even if comes the thought of disaster, consequences might stop them from launching the atomic bomb against a state prepared to strike back with the same weapon.

Three Reasons
Extending this hope suggests that unless the first blow were a nuclear one, there would surely be swirl retaliation and grievous damage to the aggressor.

How Dr. Edwards' Helps Constipated Folks!

2. By the time both nations had delivered their full supplies of atomic bombs, probably all the centers of population and industry on both sides would be destroyed, with most of their inhabitants.
(The chances of a country as large as the United States being fatally stricken in the first attack seem unlikely to the scientists.)
3. An enemy thus might choose to fight it out with conventional weapons. Scientists cite the fact that gas was not used on any large scale in the last war as a parallel. Neither side wanted to start using gas first.
But there is another theory, that dread of atomic war might in itself lead to an atomic attack. Dr. Bernard Brodie wrote for the Yale Institute of International Studies:

"The anxiety which the atomic bomb itself induces x x x may breed national neuroses manifested in the urge for a 'preventive' war."

A Last-Hope Plan
"The doctrine that the only possible defense is a vigorous anticipatory offense may even acquire some military plausibility if the number of bombs in existence greatly increases, but it will be the 'solution' of total despair."

If an atomic attack should come, the scientific and military experts agree, it will be unannounced, swift, designed to be so devastating as to make retaliation impossible. The bombs may come by plane or rocket. Or if they become so simplified that they can be smuggled across a country's borders, they may be secretly planted in vital locations. The aggressor nation might then announce to the victim that they would be exploded in a matter of hours if he did not surrender.
With the atomic bomb attack would come other destructive forces, the experts say, such as radio-active gases, which are now known.
At present science says it sees little hope of finding a way to fend off atomic bombs. Yet history shows that almost every new weapon has been described as meaning "the end of the world." It is not impossible that some day a way to meet the atom bomb will be found.

"Strike First"
At present, however, the only defense seems to be speedy mobilization of forces to resist invading troops and immediate counter-attack with atomic weapons. Once the supply of atomic bombs is exhausted—and it is believed likely that the supply always will be limited—the war can be fought out with whatever remnants of men and conventional military equipment that may be available.
"But don't wait for the attack. Strike first!"
That's what Major Gen. Ray E. Porter, director of the special planning division of the war department, said to this writer. General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower, however, testifying before the house committee on military affairs, said:

"We are never going to do it first. I am certain of that. The United States never has, and I believe we will always be true to that American tradition. We are not going to deliver the first blow."

"Do Sohio Service Station Men Make Better Husbands?"

Take my husband as a shining example...

YOUR WINDSHIELDS—or MY WINDOWS... How they glitter when he gets through shining 'em!

Me train him? Thanks for the compliment, but something tells me he learned good housekeeping from keeping his Sohio Station in such "apple pie" order—and doing helpful things for motorists.

Jim and his buddies at Sohio are pretty proud of their service. And they're tickled pink that Ohio folks keep coming back for more.

Maybe I'm prejudiced, but I say Sohio men do make better husbands because of the kind of service they're trained to give. You'll see what I mean next time you stop at Sohio.

THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY (OHIO)

... just one more reason why Ohio's favorite "stop" sign is the one that says...

Radiator Checking is just one of the thoughtful things they do for you at Sohio—and maybe that's why my Jim is so handy spotting a plant that needs water.

Checking Oil... At home it's the bike, the vacuum cleaner, a pair of skates. At his Sohio Station it's your car's crankcase. Jim's so concerned about proper lubrication for everything that has gears, wheels and bearings—he checks 'em all religiously!

Here are a few of the many services which are standard at Sohio Stations:

- ✓ So-Clear Windshield Service
- ✓ Oil level measured regularly
- ✓ Tires inflated, all around
- ✓ Complete Radiator Service
- ✓ Clean rest rooms

Ohio's Wine Tax Bill Rises 154 Per Cent

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., April 2—Excise collections on wine rose 154 per cent last month over the corresponding period last year, according to Don H. Ehrhart, state treasurer yesterday.

The increase is due to the rise in the tax on the beverage, the beer shortage, taxes on malt liquors, he said, and the fact that the state has been able to collect more than last year's receipts.

The overall tax collection on wine and liquors jumped from $1,443,000 during March, 1947 to $2,223,000 last month, he said. Cigarette tax receipts were up 14 per cent.

Sound-Proof Room So Quiet You Can Hear Heart Beat

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, April 2—Research engineers at the Illinois Institute of Technology have built a soundless room to help them to aid man's hearing sense.

Peter J. Mills, associate professor of physics at the institute, designed and supervised the construction of a super sound-proof room that, he says, will be so quiet a person standing inside can hear his own heart beat. The insulated room will be used as a laboratory to find ways to prevent and alleviate human deafness.

The interior of the "anechoic" room was lined with a series of 2,500 fiber glass wedges designed to absorb all noise. The points of these 24-inch wedge-shaped spikes protrude into the room. A floor of iron grating will permit persons to walk inside of it.

The 40-ton chamber itself rests on rubber pads, placed on concrete piers. This box-shaped room, 18 feet wide, 20 feet long and 12 feet high, was placed inside another insulated chamber and will be ventilated continuously by forced air.

Professor Mills says the purpose of the sound-proof chamber is to eliminate, as much as possible, all extraneous sounds, so that those originating within the room can be measured accurately by electronic instruments.

TRUMAN SEES GREAT ERA AHEAD FOR U. S.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 2—President Truman said yesterday America is on the threshold of an era in which we can enjoy the highest standard of living this nation has ever dreamed of.

"That standard," the Chief Executive said in a message to the American Retail Federation, "means good returns for business, for workers and for farmers."

The President's statement, read before the federation's annual meeting, said the country has set a course toward "full production, full employment, mass market economy with the high standard of living and security that it will bring to all of our people."

"That is our goal," Mr. Truman continued, "but to reach that goal we cannot now relax our vigil against the inflationary forces which threaten the stability of our economy. If we fail we will never pass the threshold of that bright future toward which we all look ahead."

Secretary of Commerce Wallace told the retail group, in a prepared speech that "the federal government's x x x must not, and it need not try to get full employment by means of a controlled economy."

Also addressing the meeting, Stabilization Director Chester Bowles expressed confidence that by June 30, 1947, "the great bulk of our price control task will have been completed." He added however that his "optimism is based on several vital assumptions."

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN BUNDENSEN, M.D.
Pregnancy

The price of safety where motherhood is concerned is eternal vigilance on the part of doctors and utmost cooperation on the part of patients.

One of the most deadly hazards of childbirth is puerperal infection of the womb. In the past, this so-called childbed fever annually claimed the lives of thousands of mothers. Today, modern sterile techniques in the delivery room have made it something of a rarity.

Furthermore, in those cases where its development cannot be prevented, penicillin and the sulfonamide drugs give physicians sovereign weapons with which to combat it.

Nonetheless, in spite of the great effectiveness of these new drugs, some mothers so afflicted will surely die. Therefore, the need for preventive measures during pregnancy and delivery cannot be over-emphasized.

Absolutely sterile technique must be observed in the delivery room. This is of paramount importance. Dr. Charles Edwin Galloway of Chicago further suggests that during pregnancy, a careful search be made for any infections of the teeth, tonsils or sinuses. These, he says, must be cleared up.

If the patient is suffering from anemia or a lessening of the coloring in the blood, this, also, should be corrected by giving iron-containing preparations and foods rich in iron, especially meat, eggs and green vegetables. During the last three months of pregnancy, tub baths should not be permitted and shower baths should replace them.

It is also important that any person with a respiratory infection, such as a cold, be kept out of the part of the hospital where delivery is carried out. According to Dr. Galloway, the three main causes of infection during the birth of the baby are prolonged labor, tearing of the womb, and excessive bleeding.

During the first two stages of labor, the use of drugs which stimulate contractions of the womb should be prohibited, according to Dr. Galloway. If excessive bleeding should occur, injections of blood plasma or whole blood into a vein should be carried out promptly.

If puerperal infection should develop, the physician will attempt to determine just what type of germ is causing the difficulty so that he can decide upon the proper treatment. The symptoms of puerperal sepsis include: pain in the lower part of the abdomen, restlessness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite, and of course, fever. Most of the patients may be free of all symptoms at the beginning of the condition except for fever, increase in the number of white cells in the blood, and a rapid pulse rate.

Penicillin is effective against most of the germs which cause puerperal infection. It is suggested by Dr. Galloway that it be given by injection into a vein or a muscle. Streptococcus antitoxin may be used also in cases caused by the hemolytic streptococcus.

The methods of prevention and treatment of puerperal sepsis have resulted in the saving of many lives. It is to the great credit of the medical profession that so much has been done in this way and in others to make motherhood a safe and joyous experience.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

H. R. J.: What is meant by insulating the tubes?

Answer: Insulating means distending or blowing them up with air. This is done to determine if the tubes are open and, if possible, to open up a passageway through them.
